

5-19-22

Regarding the batting cage project at the ballfields...

The project remains ready to go and we have been in contact with our local contractor who plans an imminent start to the concrete work and installation.

Regarding the playing surface at the ballfields...

We are working with Growmark to amend the conditions of the playing surface. They have provided soil analysis and recommendations for mitigation of the soil. We will be working with them to complete the recommend amendments.